o the court, Saturday evening, that he had other witnesses to examine on new information relevant to the case of Mrs. Smith. The following witnesses were examined before the court at 12 m. to-day:

Mr. Lev. Grant stated that he knew Mrs. Smith; had a conversation with er in the courthouse since this trial commenced. She went to his house to ask his cousin what she remembered A of a conversation had between Mrs. Smith and Mrs. Vaughan. He told Mrs. Smith that he did not think it advisable to bring his cousin here. Mrs. Smith said: "Tell her what I want her to say, and as to the other matter tell her to say she not did renember it," Mrs. Smith said she would like for me to help get the jury. Mrs. Smith said nothing to him until he told her not to summon his cousin.

Miss Addie Vaughan remembered that Mrs. Smith said to her mother in answer to the question, whether she was going to live with Frank Moore, 'Yes, if for nothing else but to have his brains blown out." Mrs. Smith came to my house last Friday; she asked me if I remembered the time she went back to live with Mr. Moore. She never asked me anything about what remembered about the case. I remembered when Joe Hanson came back. She asked me to take one of her houses since this case for nothing to have my wife near her, because she was lonesome.
I heard her say to my mother. Mrs.

Mr. Paine-Remembered conversation with Mr. Gallagher about a civil come to time in his settlement.

Mr. Jimmie Gallagher stated that Mr. Paine told him he would put up a job on Mrs. Smith if she did not give him a fair settlement. The Court said, "In view of the testimony in the case I am constrained to deny the defendant bail." The sheriff took charge of her and conducted her to jail. Key Fitting, Etc.
